Hi ladies,

Just wanting to know if anyone has any feedback or stories to tell? A quote I've been given seems very competitive, just want any extra information that comes from others experience though!

Thanks in advance!

Hey there

We have booked Andrew in, as his price was competitve and he was lovely when we met him. Nothing seemed too hard, and he was happy to even come to our place for the first meeting!

As our wedding isnt until next year i cant report on how he was, but first impressions etc were great!

HTH

Hey

All I can say is that I regret my decision with the DJ. I went through a larger place and we dont get to see the DJ a couple weeks before the wedding and thats when we find out who we have. So I am hoping that we get a good one!

So my advice is actually speak to the person that will be your DJ 😊

Okay, okay, I'll admit it, I really liked it in my mommy, but I'm finally ready to go! I should be here by now!

quote

Hi Ladies

I was married two weeks ago and I simply can't say enough good things about Andrew and Nice Cup of DJ (love the name huh!!!).

Andrew came out to meet us (at our house) 9 months earlier and he was so nice, explained everything so well, and just made the whole process so easy for us. I must admit it was just a a real load off our minds to meet a DJ that understood what we were after, able to deliver it - and just a COOL guy.....we had before meeting Andrew interviewed a couple of DJ's that turned out to be as old as my great-grandfather.

Anyway, Andrew also came out to meet us again 3 weeks before our actual wedding day for a follow up meeting which was also really great and we organised all the finer details then.

NOW - the music Andrew played at the reception was INCREDIBLE. Such cool stuff and all our guests simply didn't leave the dancefloor all night. It was just perfect and Andrew was a massive influence on myself and my husband (still getting used to saying that) simply having the best day of our lives.

So there it is - Andrew was just perfect, I can not recommend him enough.

Trish xx

PS - two of my girlfriends (that were at my wedding) have now also got in and booked Andrew.....cant wait to go to another wedding that Andrew is DJing at.

We had Andrew as our DJ for our wedding this past January. He was just great. He met with us about 6 months before and when we mentioned that we wanted an unusual choice for our 1st dance song. He managed to track down two different slow versions for us to choose from. The song was "Come on Over (All I want is you)" by Christina Aguilera BTW.

He just went above and beyond our expectations and we couldn't recommend him enough.

The music on the night was just great, he has such a huge music library that there was music to suit everyone at our wedding. From the oldies who adore Buble to my uni friends who loved dancing to an obscure song I'm sure you would only ever hear on Triple J!

I am not going back on my comment because it was risky not knowing the DJ until a couple weeks before the wedding. However, he was the Best DJ and his music was really good. ALOT of people commented about the music.... In the end I was very pleased 😊

Thanks ladies for the comments, I had no idea who to book for a DJ, as I don't want a dinosaur who doesn't get into it. I will contact Andrew for sure, word of mouth is definately the best way to go I think.

Questions for you that have used him.. does he MC also and get right into it? I want someone who is energetic not just stands in the corner and plays music you can hardly hear....

Thanks 😊

I have booked him for my upcoming wedding. He said he would MC if we really wanted him to but he suggested it would be more personal if we had a friend or family member do it. The person I asked so far wasn't keen (and I thought she would be most keen out of any of my guests) so I think we will ask Andrew to do it afterall.

Hi ladies

We had (well "my husband and I"....god I love saying that) Andrew as our DJ for our reception 4 weeks ago.

Andrew - was just perfect. At every contact leading up to our big day he was punctual, professional, and just fun to be around.

At the reception we had a packed dance floor the whole night. His timing with everything was just spot on and really helped to get all our guests to get involved. I have had so many people tell me that our wedding was probably the best they have ever attended and the most they have EVER danced. He played just the coolest music all night and was somehow able to pretty much play something that everyone enjoyed at some stage - our friends and family have a pretty wide range of tastes.

He was also our MC and my god he was a crack up.....just hilarious and very much suited to our style of wedding.

I don't usually get caught up in this forum stuff but the exceptional service that "Nice Cup of DJ" provided us, just warranted it.

Gush....gush....gush.....Andrew really made our day.
